

Our date night, you make me feel like a princess.

Everyday you give me undivided attention and special treatment.

You lead and I follow your direction.

I know what you and I want and it's US.

I can tell by the way you talk and walk.

You're my favorite.

You're not the type of man who's in the clubs.

We have our own special bond and work on us.

I like your mindset because it's all about getting money and family.

Everything about you is addicting.

Being with you makes me feel sexy and to see that I'm winning.

There's nothing that you can't do.

I feel like I'm floating when I'm with you.

I'm your treat.

We have some drinks to add to the fun.

You make my life whole.

You talk to me and show me what a real man is like.

After all this time, I have faith that you're the one.
